

Regina Coeli Academy Summer Camps
Student Release, Waiver of Liability, and Indemnity

Attendance at summer camps at Regina Coeli Academy (the “School”) and participation in activities that are sponsored and/or supervised by or taking place at the School (collectively, “School Activities”) may present certain risks of injury or illness (including from Covid-19 or other communicable diseases) that could result in death, and/or risks of loss of or damage to property (collectively, “Risks”). Parents/guardians enrolling their child or children in summer camps at the School acknowledge such Risks and voluntarily assume those Risks and/or other unknown risks, and accept that the School, the Regina Academies, the Archbishop of Philadelphia, and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia have no obligation to provide any insurance or other financial assistance for the costs of any injury, illness, death, or loss of or damage to property resulting, directly or indirectly, from School Activities, and expressly waive any claim for such compensation.

Acknowledgments. Parents/guardians agree that: (1) they consent to their child’s participation in School Activities; (2) they understand the nature of the School Activities; and (3) their child is qualified, in good health, and in proper physical condition to participate in School Activities.

Medical Treatment. In the event of a medical emergency, parents/guardians consent for their child to receive necessary medical treatment until the emergency contact person(s) on file with the School can be notified and that they are responsible for the payment of any such treatment.

Waiver and Release. Parents/guardians, on behalf of themselves, their child, heirs, next of kin, spouse, and legal representatives, release, waive, discharge from, and agree not to sue the School, the Regina Academies, the Archbishop of Philadelphia, and/or the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and their respective affiliates, successors, assigns, directors, officers, employees, volunteers, agents, contractors, and/or representatives (collectively, “Released Parties”) for any and all claims, costs, liability, or damages of any kind, including for injury, illness, death or loss of or damage to property, resulting, directly or indirectly, from School Activities except if caused by the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of any of the Released Parties which shall not be imputed to the other Released Parties.

Indemnity. Parents/guardians will indemnify, save, and hold harmless each of the Released Parties from any litigation expenses, attorney fees, loss, liability, damage, judgment or cost which may be incurred as the result of any claims by others against the Released Parties on behalf of the parents/guardians or their child.

Further, I/we acknowledge the need to be diligent in examining and monitoring the health of my child(ren) before sending him/her/them to school and to that end, I/we agree that I/we will not send our child(ren) to school if they show any signs of illness. I/we will not send my/our child(ren) to school if:

They have a fever over 100.4 degrees or have the chills; they are not feeling well for any reason; they have a cough; they are having difficulty breathing or shortness of breath; they are feeling nauseous; and/or they have no sense of taste or smell.
